A modern interior scene featuring a yellow cabinet, a colorful rug, and a side table with decorative objects. The room has a textured, light-colored wall and a white terrazzo floor. A large, colorful rug with red, orange, and black fringes is on the floor. A yellow cabinet with two doors and black legs stands against the wall. On top of the cabinet is a small white vase with dried flowers. Above the cabinet is a framed abstract artwork with orange and yellow geometric shapes. To the right of the cabinet is a small white shelf with a decorative object. A black side table with a curved wooden base holds a white plate and two small decorative objects. The word "LIVINGINSIDE" is written in white, italicized, sans-serif font across the middle of the image.
